

MISSOURI.

Young

CHRISTIAN, BUT NON-SECTARIAN.

REOPENS SEPTEMBER 2, 1895.

Through arrowing the prompert is prominently in the front rank of the land in the lightly north for the

Established 1844

Chartered 1859

AND GERMAN CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC.

UNEXCELLED

23 YEARS' UNPRECEDENTED

resperity. Patron Students: 156 Toward Drug-Pugaba

FACULTY, TWENTY-FOUR PROFESSORS:

XAVER SCHARWENKA.

DIRECTOR GENERAL.

THE INTERESTS OF ETHENITY ARE INVOLVED-

A. K. YANCEY, MEXICO, MISSOURL

THE PRESBYTERIAN

OF INDEPENDENCE.

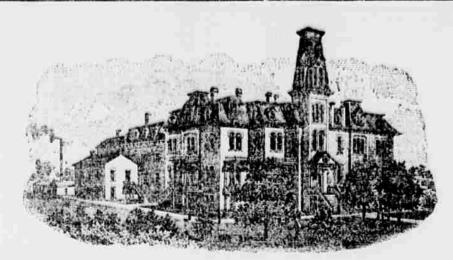

A select home school for Girls and Young Ladies. The building is heated by steam, lighted by electricity and supplied with bathrooms with hot and cold water. The grounds are large and the building bright and comfortable. Located in a beautiful and healthful town. Electric railway, with trains every 15 minutes, for Kansas City, thus giving all the advantages of a large city without corresponding cost. All modern conveniences. Eleven officers and teachers. Primary, Academic and Collegiate departments. Literary, Music and Art departments.

Art and Music Departments in Charge of Graduates of the Leading Conservatories.

Special arrangements made whereby our pupils may enter Smith Wellesley, Vassar or Bryn Mawr. The next session begins Tuesday, September 10, 1895.

For Catalogue and other information address the President.

Rev. George Frederic Ayres, INDEPENDENCE, MO.

Central College Young Ladies

NSTITUTION for the Higher Education of Girls and Young Women. Several College Courses leading to degrees; so Certificates of Produciner granted those completing elective studies. All departments—Literary, Scientific, usic, Art, Playsical Culture, Blocation, Shorthand, Typewriting, Bookkeeping—are of high order and in care of acidists. Courses of Study are Strong and Liberal; the work thorough; the best modern methods employed. The centry is composed of Earnest, Enthusiastic Teachers of College Training.

The location is one of rare beauty and healthfulness. The college is kept with care, and equipped for health Heated by steam, well centilized; lighted by both gas and electricity; hot and cold water; bath rooms and other cent systems.

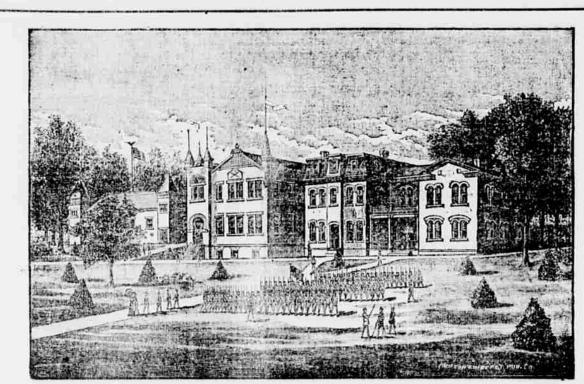

Special attention given to Physical Culture, based upon the best features of the Delsarte cent systems.

WELL EQUIPPED LIBRARY AND READING ROOM. SUPERIOR LECTURE COURSE.

The alm and purpose of the School is to foster in its pupils an intelligent and active Christian life, to lead them to fix high standards of character, and to offer, to all young ladies desiring it, breadth and thoroughness of scholarship.

Twenty-seventh session begins September 12, 1895; will close June 10, 1896. Pupils admitted at any time and charged For Catalogue and further information, address the president,

ARCHIBALD A. JONES, Lexington, Mo.

LEXINGTON, MO.

This is the OLDEST fullITARY SCHOOL in the Central West and has been under the same management from the beginning of its history. Expenses are I wer than at any other Western Military School. The headness is in a term of schools, and this congregation of schools secures many advantages that one alone would not possess. No debt. Unsurpassed health record. Attendance last session showed an increase of 36 per cent over preceding year, while most schools of this

Additions are now being made to the buildings, and more ground has been secured. For catalogue address

SANDFORD SELLERS, M. A., Superintendent.

KANSAS CITY'S GREAT BUSINESS SCHOOL.

SPALDING'S COMMERGIAL COLLEGE

KANSAS CITY, MO. East Wing N. Y. Life Bldg.

Thorough Instruction Civen in Bookkeeping, Shorthand, Typewriting, Telegraphy, English Branches, Etc.

FALL TERM BECINS SEPT. 2nd.

LOCATION THE MOST CENTRAL AND CONVENIENT IN THE CITY. 20 ELEGANT COLLEGE ROOMS. 18 EXPERIENCED TEACHERS AND LECTURERS. ACCOMMODATIONS FOR OVER 500 STUDENTS AT EACH SESSION.

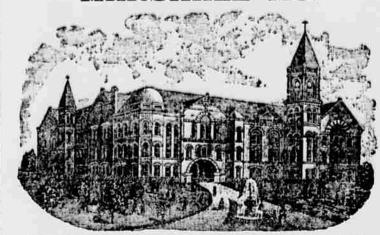

This old and progressive institution stands at the head of Western Business Schools in equipment, able faculty, best and most progressive methods and in the number and quality of positions furnished its graduates. Twenty-nine years of experience and unquestioned reputation as progressive educators has enabled us to perfeet a course of study the practical value of which is attested by over 14,000 graduates and former students who are acceptably filling responsible positions in all sections of the country.

Half-rate Summer School now in session. Students can enter at any time.

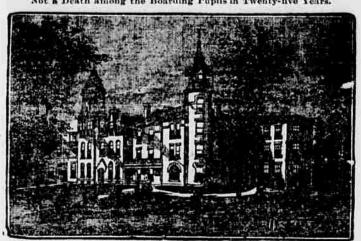

Perfect satisfaction guaranteed in every particular.

Be sure to visit or address this school before going elsewhere.

CATALOGUE PREE. Tel. 1174. J. F. SPALDING, A. M., Prest.

PRESIDENT, W. H. BLACK, D. D., MARSHALL, MO.

BAPTIST FEMALE COLLEGE,

LEXINGTON, MO

Its graduates for the past 40 years may be found in all parts of the country, filling positions of trust and honor, or at the head of illustrious and proud families. Its location is of the finest and healthiest. Presents a full course or takes students in Specialties-Music, Art, Business. Christian in character and thorough in training and Developing Young Ladies with that high level which enables them to successfully fill any position. It presents advantages not surpassed anywhere. The past year one of the most successful in the history of the College. Terms very reasonable. We cordially invite you to visit or write us.

For beautifully engraved Catalogue, address

W. A. WILSON, A. M., Lexington, Mo.

A Presbyterian HOME SCHOOL for the Higher and Liberal Education of Girls and Young Women. This is one of the oldest schools in the state. Unexcelled advantages for accurring a thorough, well rounded education, as all the instructors are Specialists. Special attention given to the Manners and Morals of pupils. MUSIC (including Piano, Organ, Harmony, Counterpoint, Theory, Voice Culture and Vocal Elocution). ART (including Drawing, Painting in Oil, Water Colors and on China). ELOCUTION, PHYSICAL CULTURE, STENOGRAPHY and TYPEWRITING. Beautiful location, overlooking the Missouri river. Buildings lighted with gas; water on each floor, hot and cold water baths; first-class sanitary arrangements and perfect drainage.

TERMS VERY REASONABLE.

For Illustrated Catalogue giving full information, address the President,

BOX 886

REV. T. PEYTON WALTON,

LEXINGTON, MO.